For more

Every year around 700 – 1000 aspirants fulfill their dream of becoming a civil servant. But there are over 10 million serious aspirant who dream of becoming a civil servant each year, but as we all know what goes on in starting of every IAS motivation article.

- You have to fight your way
- Competition is very high
- You have to study very hard
- There are a lot of books you need to study
- Keep sharp eyes on current affairs
- And all other important stuffs.

I know you know all of those. If you don't you'll definitely get them somewhere, they are everywhere.

So, everyone is telling you, you've to study hard. Like really hard, but no one tells you what is the correct way to study hard. You can study hard today, maybe for whole week or whole month but we're human beings we usually start getting deviated from our path.

When we get's deviated from our path, what brings us back to the path?

-A correct path?

-A map!

-Yes!

So we are here with the map to clear the UPSC exam.

How to use this map?

This map divides the subjects according to mains in 4 categories thus it's easy to understand and will cover all subjects.

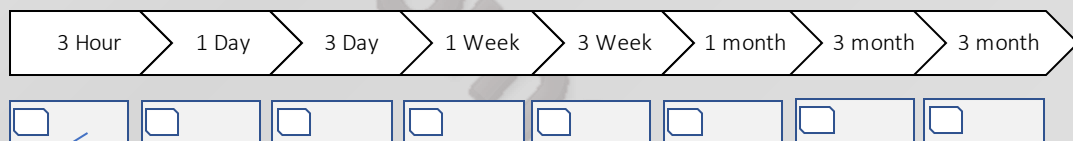

We study in order of papers in main examination and subjects are chosen according to recommended list which is given below along with subject.

Now this map contains name of book and number of chapters in it. And above that we have revision timeline

Every chapter has its own boxes under revision timeline where you have to write the dates according to timeline

For example suppose you completed chapter 1 on 10/2/2019

Chapter - 1

Write that date here
(10/02/2019)

Write date after 3 days here
(14/02/2019)

Write next date here
(11/02/2019)

And dates after 1 week (21/02/2019), 3 weeks (14/03/2019), 1 month (15/04/2019), 3 months (16/07/2019) and 3 months (17/10/2019) in these respective boxes below timeline

UPSC Most Dreamed Dream

Now as you can guess, while this map is guiding you on what to study its main motive is to remind you when to revise what you have already studied. Because you might've studied entire syllabus, but if you've not revised it, you won't be able to recall it in the examination hall. If you follow this map you will be revising a thing 7 times after significant amount of time. You will never forget it at any point.

So you have to study the chapter on same day after three hours. And when you do that, notice there is a small box in front of each box. Tick it! And when you revise it after a day, 3 days, 7 days and so on you will tick in front of every box. This will give you a sense of accomplishment and you'll be self-motivated to complete next chapter and revise previous ones as soon as possible.

One easy way to remind yourself what chapter to revise is write it on calendar date in advance or in your personal diary on that date in future, so when you will reach that date you will see which chapter you have to revise that day.

Suppose you forget to revise, don't worry just revise it on some other day to compensate for the failed revision but make sure you do it, at all cost.

Good luck aspirants!
